

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VOLUME 10, 1956

No. 1, MARCH

The interaction of surface texture, outline gradient, and ground in the perception of slant: W. C. CLARK, A. H. SMITH, & AUSMA RABE	1
The influence of noun-adjective order on learning: WALLACE E. LAMBERT & ALLAN PAIVIO	9
Visual disturbances after prolonged perceptual isolation: WOODBURN HERON, B. K. DOANE, & T. H. SCOTT	13
Differential handling and weight gain in the albino rat: W. J. MCCLELLAND	19
Experimental investigation of behaviour in social situations: III. Behaviour under frustration: VLADIMIR CERVIN & J. D. KETCHUM	23
Stress and psychopathology in stutterers: JOHN W. LOVETT DOUST	31
Continuous affect recording: reliability and validity: JOHN PAUL	38
Abstract ability in schizophrenia and the organic psychoses: W. H. COONS	43
Administrative set and sex differences as factors in the negative self-concept score: EMORY L. COWEN	51
Book reviews	57

No. 2, JUNE

Effect of auditory flutter on the visual critical flicker frequency: JOHN C. OGILVIE	61
Individual differences in pain thresholds: JAMES W. CLARK & DALBIR BINDRA	69
Retinal gradients of outline distortion and binocular disparity as stimuli for slant: W. C. CLARK, A. H. SMITH, & AUSMA RABE	77
Effects of early experience on social behaviour: RONALD MELZACK & WILLIAM R. THOMPSON	82
Problem-seeking behaviour in rats: JAROSLAV HAVELKA	91
Some invariant properties of behaviour and the problem of metrics for social relations: VLADIMIR CERVIN	98
Psychological structure as the governing principle of projective technique: Rorschach theory: HERBERT DÖRKEN, JR.	101
A non-duplicating circuit for switching counter signals: LEONARD GELFAND	107
An automatic switch with variable "off" and "on" intervals: LEONARD GELFAND & R. SPENCER SOANES	109
Book reviews	115

No. 3, SEPTEMBER

On transfer and the abilities of man: GEORGE A. FERGUSON	121
Effect of glutamic acid on the learning ability of bright and dull rats: I. Administration during infancy: K. R. HUGHES & JOHN P. ZUBEK	132
Stimulation-maturation prediction of distribution phenomena in compensatory pursuit: M. K. DEY & R. B. AMMONS	139
Advantage of early over late perceptual experience in improving form discrimination: RONALD H. FORGUS	147

A140701

EMG gradients and EEG amplitude during motivated listening:
ALEXANDER K. BARTOSHUK	156
The distinction between "classical" and "instrumental": D. O. HEBB	165
Human motivation and Freud's theory of energy discharge: JOSEPH NUTTIN	167
Cyclical variation in stuttering frequency and some related forms of variation:
BRUCE QUARRINGTON	179
Book reviews	185

NO. 4, DECEMBER

SPECIAL ISSUE: DEFENCE RESEARCH STUDIES, II

Closure with negative after-images under flickering light: CRAIG M. MOONEY	191
Effect of background on the critical flicker frequency: P. J. FOLEY	200
The interaction of auditory flutter and CFF: the effect of brightness:
JOHN C. OGILVIE	207
Gradients of outline convergence and distortion as stimuli for slant: A. H. SMITH	211
Pacing and performance on a serial addition task: H. SAMPSON	219
Effect of anti-thyroid therapy on objective-test performance: MURIEL H. STERN	226
Physiological gradients as indicants of "arousal" in mirror tracing:
ROBERT B. MALMO & JOHN F. DAVIS	231
Stimulus uncertainty, response uncertainty, and problem solving:
F. ROBERT BRUSH	239
Optimal operating conditions for radar displays employing magnesium fluoride phosphors: A. A. SMITH & G. E. BOYES	248
